REPRESENTATIVES

Of Railroads Favored the Grocery Improvements.

Mill Street Crossing Viaduct Is an Assured Thing.

The conference held Wednesday afternoon between the Board of City Commissioners and representatives of the railroad companies whose lines pass through Akron, was very satisfactory to the Board. The object of the constructing of the Mill st. viaduct, building a bridge over the railroad tracks on Perkins st., and widening the passage under the railroad bridge on North Forge st., near Renner's brew-

There were present at the conference representatives of the Eric, C., A. & C., B. & O., and C., T. & V. All had been sent to the conference to find out what was wanted by this city and the representatives expressed themselves as being in favor of the improvements contemplated. Efforts will be made to arrange terms with the railroad companies as soon as possible.

The meeting Wednesday afternoon was informal. It was a preliminary proceeding. The representatives will report to their respective companies what this city wants, and the matter will be taken under advisement.

To construct the Mill st, vinduct will Magnolia Coal. necessitate the expenditure of $75,000. Eighty-five per cent. of this expense will likely be borne the railroad companies. The bridge to be built on Perkins st. will cost $15,000. This will be paid by the railroad company, as will also the widening of the course under the bridge on North Forge st.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure throat and lung trouble without fail. For grippe, influenza and a deep seated cough or cold, it is the best remedy effered to the public. The doses are small and a bottle costs only 25c. 18

Chicago University.

Prof S. H. Clark, of the Chair of Oratory, in the University of Chicago, entertained a large audience at the First and specifications may be seen, and Universalist church Wednesday evening. He is a dramatic reader and orator of renown, and his appearance in Akron was as the third feature in the College lecture course.

Among Prof. Clark's readings were Course," by Bailey Aldrich; "That Old Each proposal must contain the full Sweetheart of Mine," Riley; "Willow mon." Ian MacLaren; "On the Road to Manderlay," Kipling;" Rudder Grange," Frank Stockton.

Selections were also read from Victor Hugo's Les Miserables. The audience was delighted with the entertainment, and it was remarked that each feature is adding a star to the lecture course.
